LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section from Friday noon; cloudy and threatening Friday evening; warmer Friday; winds shifting to southerly.

WEDDING IN LEXINGTON.—At the Episcopal Church, at Lexington, last night, at eight o'clock, Rev. R. J. McBrayer, pastor, officiating, in the presence of a large and brilliant gathering, Capt. M. B. Corse, of the Virginia Military Institute, a son of the late General M. B. Corse, of this city, and Miss Elise Semmes, daughter of Col. Thomas M. Semmes, of the V. M. I. faculty, were married. Miss Lula Semmes, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Capt. W. T. Voorhees, of the V. M. I. faculty, was the best man. The attending ladies were Miss Mary Forbes, of Washington; with Mr. J. R. A. Hobson, of Richmond; Miss Mable Marks, of New York; with Mr. Henry Bacon, of California; Miss Lucy Shipp, of Lexington; with Mr. Wm. Bryant, of this city; Miss Anne Ross, of Lexington; with Mr. H. E. Hyatt, of Lexington; Miss Elizabeth Ross, of Lexington; with Mr. Eliza Morgan, of Lexington; Miss Eliza Morgan, of Lexington; with Mr. W. A. Roberts, of Washington. The church edifice was beautifully decorated with flowers, while the altar was a picture of cut and potted flowers, plants, ferns, etc. The bride was beautifully attired in white satin, covered with a tulle veil fastened with a spray of pearls and diamonds, and carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Semmes, the maid of honor, wore white organdie, with white ribbon, and carried Madame Testout roses. The bridesmaids wore white organdie and apple green ribbon and carried bouquets of Madame Testout roses. After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Colonel and Mrs. Semmes. Among those from a distance present at the wedding were the groom's sisters, Misses Virginia and Elizabeth Corse, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beverley, of Winchester.

RAID ON A GAMBLING HOUSE.—A raid was made on the "White House," a well-known gambling institution at Rosslyn, in the county, near the Aqueduct Bridge, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Warrants were sworn out before Justice of the Peace Supple some time ago and last night they were placed in the hands of Sheriff Palmer. He, with Messrs. G. W. Yates, A. D. Holmes and A. S. Doniphan, drove to the place Tuesday night and made the raid. As the house closes at 12:30, so that the patrons can catch a car to Washington, the gamblers had gone. The paraphernalia was all captured and taken to Sheriff Palmer's house. John Lully, John Gamble, F. Foster and J. Thurston were arrested and taken before Justice Birch, in Alexandria county, at 5 o'clock yesterday evening on the charge of running gambling houses. They were all released in the sum of $100 each for their appearance before Squire Birch, on the 21st instant. These men were arrested at an early hour yesterday morning during a raid made at Rosslyn, by Sheriff Palmer, at the instance of Justice Supple, who had issued warrants on complaint of Claude Edwards Jones and J. C. Haden. Warrants were issued yesterday evening by Squire Birch against Jones and Haden, charging them with extorting money from parties under threat of criminal prosecution. The warrants were placed in the hands of Sheriff Palmer for execution. Jones and Haden reside in Washington. The offense of which they are charged is a felony under the laws of Virginia.

WEDDING.—Miss M. Addie Lyles, daughter of Mr. Alexander Lyles, and Mr. Claude M. Yates, of Culpeper county, were married last night at the residence of the bride's father, on south Fairfax street. The large parlors in which the marriage was solemnized were decorated with a profusion of holly and palms. Mr. Richard Payne, of this city, acted as best man, and Miss Lelia Reed, of Washington, was the bridesmaid. Rev. Dr. J. H. Butler, of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends from Washington, Culpeper, Falls Church, Lorton and this city. After the ceremony a collation was served. Mr. and Mrs. Yates left on the 8:56 train for a wedding tour through the southern States. They will make their home in this city upon their return.

NATIONAL UNION.—A meet of Alexandria Council, No. 665, National Union, was held at Odd Fellows' Hall (first floor) north Columbus street, last night. There was a good attendance of the members and much business was transacted, after which an election of officers to serve for the ensuing year was gone into and resulted as follows: M. E. Hobson, president; Jas. McCuen, jr., ex-president; M. R. Norris, vice-president; J. H. Byrnes, speaker; W. P. Henshaw, secretary; S. P. Jackson, financial secretary; James McCuen, jr., treasurer; Edgar Lyles, chaplain; Jas. R. Picken, usher; Chas. A. Howard, sergeant-at-arms; Carey S. Mills, door-keeper; John T. Rafferty, M. R. Norris and James McCuen, jr., trustees. This council has had a prosperous year and hopes that the new year will open under far more prosperous auspices.

EUCHARIST PARTY.—The third meeting of the Eucharist Club was held at the home of Miss Rebecca Daingerfield last evening. Those playing were Mrs. James Reid, Misses Elbrey and Niles, of Washington; Katie and Annie Uhler, Mamie and Eleanor French, Lucy Lee, Carrie Hunter, Agnes Bryant, Roberta Ansley, Virginia Minnigerode, Rebecca Daingerfield, Belle Daingerfield, Messrs. Gardner and Wm. Bothe, Lewis and Albert Smoot, Robert Fuller, Clarence Howard, Powell Minnigerode, Robert Knox, Edward Campbell, Murray Davis, Dr. Hugh McGuire. The prizes were won by Miss Hunter and Mr. Gardner Bothe. Mr. Albert Smoot received the consolation prize. After supper the rooms were cleared for dancing.

OPERA HOUSE.—It is announced by the management that "A Breezy Time," which will be seen at the Opera House on Monday night, is continually comming and always interesting. It is said that no farce comedy upon the road contains so many captivating songs. The individual talent of the performers is what the management relies upon to make the entertainment worth while attending, and to that end each member of the company has been given full liberty to elaborate his or her individual abilities.

PERSONAL.—Rev. C. E. Woodson, of Franklin, who has many friends in this city, has been called to St. Peter's Church, Brambleton, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. W. D. Smith, who goes to Fredericksburg. Mr. Charles Minnigerode was one of the guests at the Tuesday collation in Baltimore.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Mary R. Porter to Mr. Richard S. Shreve Tuesday evening, December 22, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Fairfax.

Mr. W. A. Guthrie, a prominent lawyer of Durham, N. C., was in the city to-day on business.

In the Corporation Court to-day Mr. A. W. Armstrong qualified as a notary public.

Capt. J. S. Mason, of Fauquier, was in the city to-day.

TRIED TO JUMP OVERBOARD.—The strange conduct of an elderly woman who left Washington this morning on the 5:30 o'clock boat for this city attracted attention, and she was finally taken in charge, as it was feared that she would jump overboard; indeed it is said she actually attempted to do so. When the boat arrived here the woman was turned over to the police officers who took her to the station house. After some persuasion she gave her name as Phoebe Jones and her residence in Washington. The authorities of that city were notified and the woman was detained till her friends could come for her. She is demented. The unfortunate woman is supposed to be Miss Wager, a niece of the late Chief Justice Swayne of the Supreme Court of the United States.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court last night nor this morning.

Prof. Cogan gave a difficult wire walking exhibition at Reed's dock this evening.

Thomas Washington, colored, of the county, on Tuesday night killed two large ground hogs.

Donald, the bright little son of Mr. Donald McLean, continues dangerously ill with scarlet fever.

Another case of scarlet fever, on south St. Asaph street, was reported at police headquarters to-day.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night at the Mayor's office. Only routine business was transacted.

A number of government engineers passed through this city to-day on their way to Sheridan's Point, where extensive fortifications are being built.

A called meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary Association of R. E. Lee Camp will be held in Lee Camp Hall on Friday, December 18th, at 10 a. m.

The beautiful weather brought many people out to-day, and the streets presented quite a lively appearance. Christmas shopping is the order of the day.

We have received an invitation from the Sisters of the Holy Cross to attend a musical and literary entertainment to be given by their pupils in the Academy Hall to-morrow evening.

Mrs. Mary Ann Crossen, an old and well known resident of the city, died of cancer of the liver last night at the infirmary, where she had been under treatment for the past few weeks.

Only four lodgers applied for accommodations at the station house last night, and but three Tuesday night. It is thought the enforcement of the vagrant act is having the desired effect.

Miss Harriet S. Long died in Washington Tuesday in the 84th year of her age. Miss Long formerly lived in this city, and was a teacher in the late J. S. Hallows' school for young ladies.

At the meeting last night of George Mason Council, Royal Arcanum, three applications for membership were received. The council will meet next time in Castle Hall, on north Pitt street.

The Sunday schools of Christ and St. Paul's Churches will hold their Christmas Eve celebration on Christmas Eve evening; the Baptist and Southern Methodist will have theirs on the 29th and Trinity on the 30th.

Dr. John R. Moore, a well known and highly esteemed citizen of Rappahannock, died on Tuesday, of last week at his home near Flat Hill. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Lizzie Green, of this city and several children.

Alvina Hallpap, 17 years old, living at Langley, Fairfax county, was received in the Emergency Hospital in Washington yesterday painfully injured about the face and breast from the effects of a kick from a horse.

J. J. Leake et al., trustees, have sold for $550 to the United Banking and Building Association of Richmond a lot on the south side of Prince street, between Lee and Union, and the same property has been sold to D. B. McCary.

Senator Chandler appeared before the House committee of the District of Columbia yesterday and urged early action upon the bill relating to the water power at Great Falls. He said the measure will probably pass the Senate this week.

At a regular stated meeting of J. W. Jackson Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held last night two candidates were initiated into the mysteries of V. D. and P. and three applications for membership were received. After the regular routine business had been disposed of, Mr. A. J. Groves, the presiding officer, gave a very interesting talk on the principles of the order, which was enjoyed by all present.
